

Please allow a "real" public debate on this issue. It is of great importance to the American public. Public involvement in decision making is what democracy is all about. We need to be heard and we need to know all the facts.